A local living history group is helping celebrate a milestone anniversary in the development of Winnipeg as a settlement.

A new exhibit marking the 275th anniversary of the building of Fort Rouge at The Forks by the French-Canadian explorer Pierre Gaultier de Varennes, Sieur de La Vérendrye, was recently launched at the Manitoba Museum.

The exhibit — titled Fort Rouge: Commemorating 275 Years of French Presence in Manitoba — is a joint collaboration between La Compagnie de La Vérendrye and the museum and is set to run until Sept. 16, 2013. The province contributed $6,000 to the project.
